NATIONAL AGENCY FOR SCHOOL EVALUATION

Invitation
To the SICI Workshop
“The impact of internal and external evaluation on the improvement of the quality in schools”
in Vilnius, Lithuania, 26th – 28th May 2014

Dear SICI colleagues,

It is our pleasure to invite you to take part in the SICI workshop “The impact of internal and external evaluation on the improvement of the quality in schools”, held by the National Agency for School Evaluation (NMVA), Lithuania on the 26th – 28th May 2014.

Through a mix of presentations, school visits and group discussions, the workshop will guide participants to reflect about the impact of internal and external evaluation on the improvement of the quality in schools. The guest from the Education Scotland, Alan Urquhart, will present the relationship between evaluation and creativity and Adrian Gray, the guest from Ofsted, will speak about inspecting how schools provide for their more able pupils. Shift and challenges in Lithuanian inspection also will be presented.

Please find attached draft programme, hotel registration form, accommodation and travel information.

Registration to workshop and hotel booking is no later than 26th April 2014.

Registration form to workshop: <http://www.nmva.smm.lt/sici-registration/>

We hope you consider this challenging topic relevant for your future inspection-work and you will participate in our workshop. This will offer great opportunity to cooperate and share experience on the international level.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Lithuania!

Yours sincerely,

Gražvydas Kazakevičius
Director National Agency for School Evaluation
Lithuania
